Who would be interested in early season nude ice skating... indoors and before it gets super cold out? I know what you are thinking... crazy.

But is it? who's in?

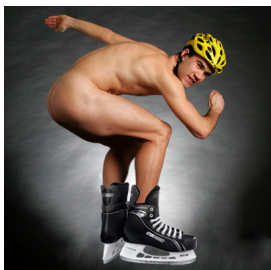

I have a Hudson Valley location willing to host if we get enough signups.

We need definite people who are willing to buy advance tickets to get the date on a calendar. We tried this last year but did not have enough interest. So here we go again.

There seems to be enough interest this time in the Ice Skating event so I am going to confirm a date and time in Dec and put it back out for signups.

It should be abt $25 for skating plus rentals. ($5 discount with HVN membership card) Weekend of Dec 12-14 or 19-21 in Brewster, NY.

I will keep you posted once advance tickets open up and details are confirmed.
