This is a 2018 guide to naturist, clothing-optional and naked events happening around the U.S. and Canada this summer! It's split into two sections — Naked / Clothing Optional Events (more mainstream events that appeal to naturists) and Naturist Events (organized by and for naturists). The list is focused on big festivals, gatherings and unique events, excluding regular club socials like potlucks, BBQs or holiday parties. Check back here as I will update this list with more events!

Summer 2018 Roundup of Naked Events and Festivals

All of these events are inclusive, meaning they are LGBT+ friendly and all are welcome regardless of gender, age, sexual orientation or marital status. There are some well-known clubs / events that are intentionally left out here, either because they don't align with naturist values or because they try to use sexy naked female models to promote themselves (a personal pet peeve), or are not inclusive, or all of the above.

But this is not a complete list of everything, and as I've pointed out before , a lot of nudist clubs don't post very much information about their own events, leaving me unable to figure out what they even are or if they're worth sharing. If you have an event you feel should be included here, feel free to contact me or leave a comment!

Naked or Clothing-Optional Events 2018

The following is a list of more mainstream naked events that also appeal to nudists and naturists.

World Naked Bike Rides (WNBR)

For those not familiar with it, the World Naked Bike Ride is an international protest event that aims to draw attention to fossil fuel / environmental pollution and cycling safety. Participants bike nude (or semi-nude) to draw attention to the vulnerability of cyclists. Many wear fun costume accessories or get body painted before the ride. Two big rides coming up on June 23 are in Los Angeles, CA and Portland, OR. The Southern California Naturist Association (SCNA) helps organize the LA WNBR. Find info on more rides at the WNBR Wiki

Celebrate Legalization of Marijuana in Vermont + Water Wars Weekend at Abbott's Glen June 30 and July 27 – 29th

3542 VT Rt 112, West Halifax, VT

Just before their 4th of July festivities, Abbott's Glen will celebrate Vermont's new legalized marijuana law going into effect at midnight on July 30. (Starting July 1, adults 21+ in VT can legally possess up to one ounce of marijuana.) The bed and breakfast style inn will have a party with a reggae band called The Equalities. All overnight guests can attend the event, but if you want to visit just for an evening at the nightclub, you must be a couple. Abbott' Glen has charming guest rooms and suites as well as camping. Amenities include a hot tub, wood fired sauna and nightclub, as well as a pond, river and hiking trails on their beautiful grounds.

June 30, 2018: Abbott's Glen hosts a party celebrating the legalization of marijuana in Vermont with live reggae band The Equalities.

Also of note at Abbott's Glen is their "Water Wars" weekend (July 27 – 29). That Saturday will be a day to unleash your inner child and engage in a day-long water fight with super soakers, squirt guns and "any vessel that holds water." There will also be a group bonfire on Friday, a Saturday night dinner and a nude yoga class. Visit AG's website at abbottsglen.com for more info.
